The lockdowns induced by Covid-19 have led to unprecedented challenges to economies across the globe. The second edition of the VoxChina Covid-19 Forum focuses on China’s post-lockdown economic recovery, with three presentations that are based on data analysis of small businesses, consumption, e-commerce, and beyond, each for 15 minutes. There will be 30 minutes of Q&As.

- Economic Effect of Lockdown in China

Zhiguo He (University of Chicago)

Zheng Michael Song (Chinese University of Hong Kong)

- The Impact of the COVID-19 Pandemic on Consumption

Wenlan Qian (National University of Singapore)

- The COVID-19 Crisis: Global Shock and Lessons for Recovery

Feng Zhu (Luohan Academy)

Forum Rules:

- The virtual forum will not be recorded so as to encourage participants to present preliminary work.
- Because presentations are short, please do not interrupt the presentation. All questions and comments will be addressed during the discussion.
- Everyone has to raise their hand to ask a question or make a comment and wait for the host to call on them to talk.
- Attendees will be unmuted by the host when it is their turn to talk after they have raised their hand.
- We are still learning Zoom meeting capacities. Please be patient with us.
